

To Whom it May Concern,

Please continue to keep the internet free and open for all. Keeping net neutrality is critical in order to keep the world wide web an open dialogue where all people are free to utilize it's tools and information. This is an important issue for myself and everyone in this day and age who is able to use a computer. Let's act in the interest of the greater good.

Sincerely,

Paige Costelloe